ST. LOUIS FEUDIST FIRES ON BEST FRIEND.

Man Freed of Killing Constable Used Gun Restored to Him by Court-Mind Unbalanced by Fear.

St. Louis, July 2.-Another chapter was added early Thursday to the history of the gang feud that cost Constable Sam J. Young and Fred J. (Yellow Kid) Mohrle, their lives, when William Wright, acquitted Wednesday of the murder of Young fired upon Charles Tozer, supposedly his friend. whom Wright's lurking terror transformed into an enemy.

With the revolver given him a few hours before by Judge Fisher, following his acquittal, Wright shot Tozer in the side, in the home of Mrs. Marie Mohrle, widow of "Yellow Kid" Mohrle, 808 North Jefferson avenue, at 3:30 a. m. Thursday. Tozer is at the city hospital, and will recover Wright is again a prisoner, held at the Dayton street station.

There are two versions of the shoet-ing. Tozer said Thursday, at the hospital, that Wright, without cause other than his fear of the gang, which has caused him to shrink from every shadow and turn at every sound, suddenly drew his weapon and fired, as he and Tozer sat talking in Mrs. Mohrle's home. Mrs. Mohrle had left the room a moment before.

Wright, at the Dayton street station, said he was dozing by Tozer's He dreamed he saw Thomas (Red) Kane, the slayer of "Yellow Kid" Mohrle, approach him. The scene of the shooting of Mohrle was about to be re-enacted-only he will the object of Kane's aim,

New London, Conneral July 2.—In a notable exhibition of rowing by a crew remarkable for its physical power and endurance, Harvard defeated Yale in their annual varsity boat race on the Thames. The crimson's crew led from start to finish and won by six boat lengths. Harvard's time was 21:50; Yale's 22:10. By this victory Harvard won her second consecutive boat race from Yale in 28 years. Not since 1880 and 1881 has Harvard won two consecutive races from Yale. Since 1885 Harvard has won five varsity races from Yale, including to-day's, namely in 1881, 1899, 1908 and 190 1908. Since Wray has been coaching at Cambridge, Yale and Harvard have met three times and the crimson has won two

INCREASE TAX ON TOBACCO

Beveridge's Expose of Tobacco Trust Profits Wins Higher Tariff on the Weed.

Washington, July 2 .- As a result of the exposures made by Senator Beveridge about the enormous profits of the tobacco trust and how it escapes with small taxation, the seaste finance committee has decided that it will increase the internal revenue tax on tobacco.

The rate has not been determined. but it is expected that it will be fixed at 8 cents a pound on all tobacco except snuff, cigars and cigarettes.

The law is 6 cents a pound, and Beveridge urged that it should be made 9 cents.
